Diversification for Play Therapists Series

Seeds, Growth and Gardening: Building a Private Practice

Edel Lawlor

Date: 8th December 2018

Fee: €110

This is a one day workshop, with Edel Lawlor, which will help participants become motivated and dream about their new journey in private practice or add to their private practice. The day will cover the following areas:

Seeds – exploring ideas using the yellow brick road and art. Mapping out your dreams and setting up your private practice. Balancing therapy lenses with your business lenses.

Growth – one flower is lovely, but a bunch of flowers complement each other. Exploring other areas of work in which you can grow and water how to make contacts in the community, running workshops, advertising and social media.

Gardening- for your garden to grow you need to maintain it, nurture it and have time to stop to enjoy it.

The day will be full of ideas, handouts, experiences and honest information about the joys and struggles of a having private practice.

Facilitator: Edel Lawlor, MA.

Edel Lawlor is a Child and Adolescent Psychotherapist specializing in Play Therapy and Sand Tray Therapy. Edel opened her Play Therapy Practice, called Expressive Play, in 2005. Edel has an umbrella of services under Expressive Play which she has built up over the years and has a very successful business. Edel says she has a successful Therapy Centre because she worked hard, believed in her dreams, continues to learn, has a wild imagination and when she failed she picked herself up and learned from her falls.

Edel has supported children and parents through one to one therapy and also group workshops. She has developed several school programmes for children to enhance self esteem and cope with transitions such as secondary transition. Edel also provides training for students and professionals working with children in; Child protection, Therapeutic play skills, The effects of domestic violence on children, Understanding parenting struggles and supporting parents, Parenting on the path of recovery and many more. Alongside these Edel facilitates her own parenting support programme 'Creative parenting'. Edel's work has been acknowledged at local and national level and published in a chapter in 'Parenting in Modern Ireland' in 2015.
